Research Paper:
A. Vári: Argumatics: a text analysis procedure for supporting problem formulation 1
V. Shvyrkov and A. Persidsky: The importance of being earnest in statistics 19
M.J. Holler: Three characteristic functions and tentative remarks on credible threats 29
K.D. Bailey: Alternative procedures for macrosociological theorizing 37
P. Valois and G. Godin: The importance of selecting appropriate adjective pairs for measuring attitude based on the semantic differential method 57
M.J. Holler: The Kreps–Wilson monopoly-entrant game and cautiously rationalizable sequential equilibria 69
Notes:
H. Salonen: Efficiency and monotonicity of bargaining solutions 85
G. Maassen: The use of positively and negatively phrased items and the fit of a factor solution 91
R. Eisinga, P. Scheepers and L. van Snippenburg: The standardized effect of a compound of dummy variables for polynomial terms 103

Vol. 25, No. 2

N.W.H. Blaikie: A critique of the use of triangulation in social research 115
F. Béland: Utilization of ambulatory care studies: testing the assumptions 137
F.-A. Esbensen and S. Menard: Interviewer-related measurement error in attitudinal research: a nonexperimental study 151
N.J. Molenaar: Recent methodological studies on survey questioning 167
S. Wasserman and J.H. Davis: A methodology for comparing predictions from many models to few data 189
Note:
M. Szilagyi: A neural network approach to the simulation of human society 211

Vol. 25, No. 3

J.C. Garand: Decomposing real and deflator-based government growth: an application to the American states 221
C.P. Middendorp: On the conceptualization of theoretical constructs 235
G.K. Warriner: Accuracy of self-reports to the burdensome question: survey response and nonresponse error trade-offs 253
M.-T. Coello and A. Garriga: Assessing individual differences in psychophysical functions 271
K.U. Kirchgässler: Validity – the quest for reality in quantitative and qualitative research 285
B.S. Stefansson: On irrelevant and infeasible alternatives 297
Notes:
D. Kaplan: On the modification and predictive validity of covariance structure models 307
M. Rosenzweig: A flexible test of symmetry 315
E. Johanson: High precision registration of complicated longitudinal and cross-sectional data 321
M. Bloombaum: Influence of research design upon data analysis 327

Vol. 25, No. 4

K. Hope: Design matrix analysis 333
T. Rudas: Prescribed conditional interaction structure models with application to the analysis of mobility tables 345
A.K. den Boon and A. van Meurs: Measuring opinion distributions 359
M. Hammersley: A note on Campbell's distinction between internal and external validity 381
B.S. Stefansson: Borda's method applied – the right to make a proposal 389
H. Nurmi: Preferences, choices, tournaments: alternative foundations for the evaluation of voting schemes 393
I. Maso: Preliminary negotiations as an indicator of the context and the utilization of research: a case study 407
E. Weede: The impact of state power on economic growth rates in OECD countries 421
